

YES for MAPS Coalition Opens Campaign Office

OKLAHOMA CITY, Nov. 13, 2009 – The YES for MAPS Coalition today announced the opening of their campaign headquarters office in the Robinson Renaissance Building, 119 N. Robinson, Suite 120.

The campaign office will be staffed Monday through Friday. Citizens can come by to pick up stickers, bumper stickers, yard signs and other campaign materials. They can also make a donation or sign up to be a campaign volunteer.

“The campaign headquarters will serve as our home base as we spread the word about MAPS and why voting ‘yes’ is so important for the future of Oklahoma City,” said Oklahoma City Mayor Mick Cornett. “If you can’t make it to the campaign office, you can always join our effort through the web site, www.YESforMAPS.com.”

The YES for MAPS Coalition is chaired by Oklahoma City Mayor Mick Cornett. Former Mayors Ron Norick and Kirk Humphreys are co-treasurers of the effort. The Coalition is campaigning in support of the upcoming MAPS initiative, to be voted on Tuesday, Dec. 8, 2009.

The following local organizations and civic groups have voiced their support for MAPS and the coalition:

- Asian District Association
- Bricktown Association
